Event and Demo Reports

Pennsic War: Tales from the Baron and Baroness War was A Tie! Aethelmarc vs. Middle & East

Equipment moved into the new Cynnabar storage trailer (near Archery Range)

Birke die Jaegerin was awarded a Dragon's Tooth on the field. Birke herself told Kay: "I got the Dragon's Tooth for having one of the loudest voices on the melee field, screaming at our fighters to go where they were needed on our line. :) For being a very loud, effective, noticeable commander." Well Done, Birke!

25 veteran Cynnabar campers did not come, but lots of first time campers did.

Young Quintonius (Jensen) learned the Cynnabar Fight song on his modern trumpet and played for marches to battle. Quintonius and Gavriil also went to the camps of people who were summoned to Cynnabar Court and with long trumpet and banner called them to attend the Baronial Court. The King of the Middle peered out to see what was happening in his courtyard. There are pictures.

Demo Report from Aeffe Torsdottir: Literary Summer - Merry Adventures of Robin Hood, Historic Crossroads Village (Shire of Stormvale) Cynnabar members Godaeth, Aeffe, and Dillon participated with members of Stormvale, Roaring Wastes, and Fearann na Criche to portray life in the time of the legendary Robin Hood. Fiber arts, carving, scribal, archery equipment and fancy shooting were displayed and discussed. Other attractions included heavy fighting, tanning, chain mail, and garb items to try on. Ligessac_d'Isigny said: "Many thanks to Ladies Godaeth, Aeffe and Aemiliana and Forester Dillon for helping at our Demo. They were very pleased to have us, and would love to have us back in the future."

Words from Their Excellencies Ermenrich and Kasha of Cynnabar:

Fall Revel needs to get organized. Grey has a proposal for changes to the Closing of the Range, and will develop it. Since October 25 is the 600th anniversary of the Battle of Agincourt do we want to combine that theme with the Closing? Expenses are usually $250. $125 for Privy (never collected by host) plus misc. expenses. Shall Meat be provided? Or rent a tent? Please discuss and offer ideas and advice.

All Artists: A new supply of Tower's Light badges is needed. Any artisan interested in making a new design may show it to the Baron and Baroness if you wish input. Otherwise, creation is up to you. 24 pieces are requested.

Announcements –

Grey has more honey than he knows what to do with; need some?

Viktorija: The Cynnabar Youth Pages are up on the Cynnabar Web Site

Viktorija and Ilona are discussing a Pages School activity for Cynnabar young people. Based on the merit badge methods of the Gil Scouts it would offer an online guide to the process and some web based resources for kids of all ages to study new activities at home at their own pace, with parental guidance, and demonstrate their work in Arts or Martial activities at events. This would provide a structure for learning and demonstrating success that could be adapted to any SCA activity. People to help draft badge requirements or discuss the idea are welcome to contact Ilona at ilonwud@yahoo.com

(You may recall Ilona/ Heidi as active until about 8 years ago. She, her husband Russ, and their children are rejoining us.)

Luisa attended Equestrian Marshall meeting at Pennsic. There are currently no Equestrian marshalls in Pentemere. She is hoping to identify sites that could have equestrian activity and to start the process to become a marshall. Grey reports he has a contact for her.

SCA 50 is going to have lots of Equestrian activities. They are encouraging participation to the point of possibly offering free stabling on site. Please pass this on for any equestrians you know; they will want to check the 50 Year website for news.
