Grand Day of Tournaments 2016 (Sat Nov 5, 2016) Liberty School, Ann Arbor Saline Road, Saline, MI. Ms. Giovanna Steward. Budget $1735. Breakeven 174.

- Insurance Certificate is ordered

Pentemere 12th Night Jan 7, 2017. THL Ceara Hidden Springs Church, Howell Budget $2700 Breakeven: 170(approx)

- Site News: We may have the Church... but the cost is unclear.
- The Church referred us to the other two Baronies who have hosted. They will not set a price (possibly for tax reasons, suggests Bunny.)
- We could follow the example of Roaring Waste and give them half our gate receipts. $1000 possible. But if weather is bad this would guarantee we did not have to give them more than we received.
- We can use Northwood's example and give them ½ our Profit. But first we have to split Profit with Kingdom if this becomes Kingdom 12th Night. If weather is bad we could lose money on the event. And then how much do we pay the church?
- Or offer them $500 base and ½ the Baronial Profit (1/2 what we have after splitting profit with Kingdom.
- Ceara, Steward, is going to consider, consult advisors, and make a decision.

Activity, Event & Demo Reports

Smurf Shoot: Grey went and reports this is a wonderful little event, much like archery events were 20 years ago. The Smurf was taken by Cirion the Left Handed, after a final where Grey have 3 one shot Kills in a row. The food was great; potluck is the tradition.

Siege of Talonval: Ermenrich reports a good event, and though Cynnabar was defeated it took the combined might of Pentemere to do it. Friday was fun. Saturday started as a lovely day but a drizzle commenced. Kay notes that our Baroness was one of the wise Judges for the Siege Cooking contest. Two ladies competed, and it became, they reported to me, ad cooperative effort as they shared garnish and efforts in the final moments of plating their efforts. Mistress Heloise too the prize, but all the food was excellent. It had been too long since I have had Goat.

Those who stayed Saturday night did not have the torrential rains we experienced on our way home, and Ermenrich says some people stayed up Very Late.

There were several archery shoots, until the rain. One that was postponed till another day involved a 3 dimensional target on wheels. Grey says a Moose prize will be embellished with a walnut and oak case or reliquary...

The Talon vale Rapier Champion sponsors a tourney at this event. Our William was the most successful in a challenge to exchange 500 passes with the Talon vale Champion. Hooray!
